No:25 Çorlu/TEKİRDAĞ

Dear Sir and Madam,

Taking into account the ever-increasing gift of knowledge, of the factors involved in the educational process, we organize in Istanbul a conference with a theme "Applications of exact skills in the hospitality industry".

The conference will be attended by teachers from our university, from the marketing and statistical departments, as well as representatives of TURSAB (The organization of Tourism Agencies in Turkey). The topics discussed during the conference will attempt to explain the connection between the exact sciences and the tourism development.

Because, we know that your experience in the field is a good one, we would be honored if there will also be people from your part among the participants in the conference

The conference proceedings will be held in Istanbul, on 06.04.2020. The location will be announced by the beginning of next year.

Participation in the Conference proceedings, is free of charge.

Organized by ARSEAD Sosyo-Ekonomik Araştırmalar ve Danışmanlık. Tekirdağ Namık Kemal University Teknokent No:25 Çorlu Mühendislik Fakültesi ÇORLU/Tekirdağ
